

Branford Folk Music Society

New Board Members Sought

for the term August 2009 through July 2011
(renewable)

The Board of Directors is currently accepting nominations to fill at large positions on the Board.

- Qualifications: enjoyment of traditional folk music and desire to see it continue in Branford. Skills in particular areas such as finances, grant writing, small business administration, etc. are welcome but not required. Must become a member of BFMS if not already a member.
- Responsibilities: attend about eight board meetings a year, attend and help at most of the nine concerts of the season (September through May).
- Benefits: free attendance when you help out at a concert, decision making contribution to the programming and other issues of the society, opportunity to get to know some wonderful people who are musicians.

Deadline for nominations is June 30 2009.

The Board will vote on the nominations received at the July meeting and inform the nominees of their status following the meeting.

For more information, please email branfordfolk@yahoo.com or call Willa at 203-248-0291.

To nominate yourself, fill in the section below (use the back if needed) and give it to a current board member, or mail to BFMS, P.O. Box 441, Branford, CT 06405. You can also nominate yourself by email.

I would like to nominate myself to become a member of the Branford Folk Music Society Board of Directors for the term of August 2009 through July 2011.
